SOLIHULL

The leafy borough of Solihull is an irresistible blend of town chic and country living. With three-quarters of the borough defined as Green Belt it's a place where casual elegance and a sophisticated, connected lifestyle merge seamlessly into one.

Dating from 1220, the quaint town is steeped in history. Timber framed Tudor houses, picturesque villages and listed buildings sit alongside award-winning shopping, global brands, fine dining and some of the UK's leading companies.

HOME TO THE WELL CONNECTED

With its desirable mix of country and city living, Solihull is a rare blend of ancient and modern, independent and international.

Well connected and enterprising, it's a town bustling with opportunity. Neighbouring Birmingham and Coventry (10-13.5 miles) it's the perfect place from which to explore and experience more. Solihull Station has rail links to London Marylebone, Birmingham Moor Street and Snow Hill. The recently expanded Birmingham International Airport is nearby, allowing easy access to the capital, Europe and beyond.

The attractions are endless. Home to world class events, the National Exhibition Centre, National Motorcycle Museum, Resorts World & Arena all enticingly on your doorstep.

HIGH SPEED TRAVEL

INTERCHANGE STATION

The new HS2 Interchange Station is being built in Solihull, near the NEC, some 15 minutes' drive from Imperial House. With existing links to both road and the UK motorway networks, Solihull will be one of the most connected places in the United Kingdom. Get to the Capital from the Interchange Station in 37 minutes.

BIRMINGHAM CURZON ST STATION

This new station will be at the heart of the high-speed rail network in the West Midlands. Central to the high-speed rail network, it will give people more choice about where they decide to work, live and play.

Curzon Street Station is just a 10 minute walk from Moor Street Station, which is accessed directly from Solihull Station, a 3 minute walk from Imperial House.

THE EXCLUSIVE

LEISURE TIME

If you have a taste for the finer things in life then Solihull is an inspired choice. There's a bounty of coveted shopping and leisure amenities to indulge in, including Touchwood Shopping Centre, bespoke boutiques and Mell Square Shopping Centre. The John Lewis department store heads up a high street of over 80 global brands which sit tantalisingly alongside a multitude of tasteful bars, restaurants and coffee houses all for your pleasure.

PROSPERITY

A GOOD PLACE TO DO BUSINESS

Business is at the forefront of Solihull's reinvention. With the likes of Jaguar Land Rover located here, the town has blossomed into a lively commercial centre.

Including established brands NPower, Paragon Finance and the National Grid, there are some 8,295 businesses employing approximately 125,000 people across the region. Incomes are 14% higher than the UK average and this burgeoning local economy has seen Solihull become a much sought after area for property in the UK.

HSBC and Goldman Sachs are some of the many firms having recently opened offices in Birmingham City Centre - Europe's youngest City, with the under 25's accounting for some 40% of the population. Having recently hosted the Commonwealth Games and just a 9 minute train journey from Imperial House, Birmingham is firmly on the map as the country's second City.
